This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

To my WORTHY

FRIENDS the PARISHIONERS

Saint MATTHEW, Bethnal-Green.

My Brethren,

WHEN I compoſed the following Sermon, I had not the leaſt Intention to Print it; it being drawn up and preached ſoley for your Uſe, with whom I am more immediately concern'd. The occaſion of it is well known to you all. It was, if poſſible, to take off any bad Impreſſions that might have been made upon your Minds by the Diſcourſes of ſuch enthuſiaſtical Preachers as have been brought into our Church; who, you well know, have never fail'd to aſperſe the parochial Clergy, and to create Prejudices in the Minds of the inconſiderate; by inſinuating (in their Methodiſtical Cant) that the true Goſpel is not preached in the eſtabliſhed Church. With a view to wipe off ſuch baſe Aſperſions, and at the ſame Time to point out the deceitful Manner in which they handle the Word of God, the following Diſcourſe was delivered. And many of you, my Brethren, were pleaſed to teſtify your Approbation of it, and deſire of its Publication. Tho' ſome, who are particularly attached to Methodiſt Preachers, I am inform'd were much diſpleaſed at it. I have therefore ſent it abroad, rude and imperfect as it is, in hopes that ſuch of my Friends who favourably received it from the Pulpit, will have no Reaſon to alter their Sentiments, when they receive it from the Preſs. And alſo that thoſe who were diſpleas'd at it, may have an Opportunity to make what Remarks upon it they pleaſe. But if ſuch Perſons could be prevailed upon, for a Moment, to lay aſide Prejudice and Partiality; and for once in their Lives, give themſelves the Trouble of fairly examining what is ſaid; I think I might then venture to entertain ſome hopes that this Sermon would not be entirely loſt upon them. But be that as it may. This I am ſure of, the Diſcourſe is well meant. And I ſincerely wiſh it may be of Service to every one who ſhall happen to peruſe it. Some little Alteration has been made in it ſince it was preached; and what was then ſuppreſſed for want of Time, is now inſerted at large. But ſhould any one be inclin'd to have a more favourable Opinion of Methodiſm, than to believe what he finds repreſented in the following Diſcourſe; I muſt beg leave to refer him, for the Confirmation of what I have advanced, not only to plain Matters of Fact, which happen every Day; but to an excellent Treatiſe intitled, the Enthuſiaſm of Methodiſts and Papiſts compared. In this truly valuable Performance, the venerable Author hath ſufficiently expoſed, from the Writings of the Methodiſts, what he very juſtly calls their ſanctified Singularities, low Fooleries, and high Pretentions. This excellent Treatiſe, I am perſuaded, is well worthy the Peruſal of every one. And, together with the learned Dr. Free's Sermon of Rules for the Diſcovery of falſe Prophets, will, if any Thing can, be a moſt effectual Preſervative againſt the baneful Infection of the Enthuſiaſm of Methodiſts, Papiſts, and Fanatics of every Denomination. And let it be remembered as a Warning to us, that this this Kingdom has already but too much experienced the fatal Effects of Enthuſiaſm; even ſo far as to the overthrow of the Church and State. But that this may never again be the Caſe, is the Prayer of one who profeſſes himſelf with the utmoſt Sincerity,

Your truly obliged and faithful and devoted Servant,

HADDON SMITH.

A

St. MATTHEW, Bethnal-Green.

2 Cor. iv. 2.

Not walking in Craftineſs, nor handling the Word of God deceitfully.

DID I not flatter myſelf, that I am before an Audience who are more deſirous of hearing the plain Truths of the Goſpel, than to have their Ears dinn'd continually with the abſtruſe Points of Election and Reprobation *; I ſhould be apt to imagine, that no Diſcourſe would be pleaſing to them, or look'd upon as agreeable to the Goſpel of Chriſt, but that only which is as little underſtood by the Preacher as by one of the Lunatics in Bedlam.

But I am perſuaded better Things of you, my Brethren. I know you will not think the worſe of a Diſcourſe, upon an important Subject, becauſe it is plain to be underſtood: as ſuch, I apprehend my following Diſcourſe to be. And as it is a Duty incumbent upon every Clergyman, to withſtand ſuch as falſely inſinuate, that the Doctrines of the Goſpel are not preached in the eſtabliſhed Church; which is the Caſe in almoſt every Charity Sermon that is preached by Methodiſts; ſo I hope, at a Time, when thro' this Artifice, Conventicles are ſet up in almoſt every Pariſh, and the Pariſhioners drawn from their reſpective Pariſh Churches, that a Diſcourſe upon the Deception of Methodiſm, will not be deem'd unſeaſonable. And tho' to oppoſe and confute the pernicious Tenets of Enthuſiaſts may, by ſome Perſons, be called railing; yet I ſhall not think myſelf obliged to deſiſt upon that account.

When ſome among us, in Oppoſition to the Chriſtian Church, maintain abſurd, vain, and deceitful Doctrines; and theſe are applauded as Goſpel Truths! it is high Time

Time for every ſerious Perſon to look about him, and endeavour to defend the Faith to the beſt of his Power.

I only wiſh that the Clergy, in general, would expoſe the dangerous Tenets of this overbearing Sect; but as it requires no great Capacity to ſhew the Deceitfulneſs of their Doctrines, ſo I ſhall make no Apology for attempting it. Your ſerious Attention then, to what I am going to ſay, may, thro' the Grace of God, be attended with ſome Advantage; as I intend to enlarge upon the Text in the following Manner.

Firſt, I ſhall ſhew, by ſeveral Inſtances, that a ſet of pretended Reformers among us, called Methodiſts, do handle the Word of God deceitfully.

Secondly, I ſhall point out the pernicious Conſequences of ſuch a deceitful dealing with the Word of God. And,

Thirdly and Laſtly, I ſhall cloſe all with a Word of Exhortation.

In the Firſt Place

ſeveral Inſtances, that a [illegible] Reformers among us, called Methodiſts, do handle the Word of God deceitfully.

The ſpecious Pretence of making a thorough Reformation in the Church, is the grand Engine by which Enthuſiaſts impoſe their wild Vagaries upon the ignorant Multitude. In order to this, they never fail to inſinuate, that the true Goſpel is not preached in the eſtabliſhed Church. For as the Word Goſpel in Divinity, like Liberty in Politics, has ſomething intoxicating in the ſound of it to ſuch as know little of its genuine Signification, it is no difficult Taſk to perſuade ſuch People into a Belief of any Thing, however abſurd, or contradictory to Reaſon and Scripture.

And ſo prone is Human Nature to reliſh every Kind of Defamation, that a Diſcourſe well ſeaſoned with this Ingredient, is ſwallowed down with the greateſt Eagerneſs.

For this Reaſon it is, no doubt, that the Methodiſt Preachers are continually fulminating againſt the eſtabliſhed Clergy. They repreſent them as greatly degenerated; fearing Man, more than God; having only an outward Character; but no inward Call to the Miniſtry; nothing of the Holy Spirit. But an Enthuſiaſt, you will find, has more of the Spirit than all the Clergy put together; and therefore, to be ſure, he muſt have every Thing new Modell'd; and the ſtanding Rules of the Church muſt give way to every wild Freak that happens to ſpring from his heated Imagination.

Human Learning is ſure to be cried down as unneceſſary; becauſe the Spirit, they ſay, will teach them in that Hour what to Speak. Thus they vainly apply a Text of Scripture, that that was evidently peculiar to the Apoſtles, to the Encouragement of every illiterate Carman or Porter, to ſet himſelf up as a Preacher, under the Pretence of Inſpiration.

And is not this to handle the Word of God deceitfully? Yes ſurely: Becauſe it is making a Text of Scripture bend to ſerve a particular Purpoſe.

I would not be underſtood to ſay, that God does not infuſe ſuch a meaſure of Knowledge into our Minds as he, in his great Wiſdom, ſees moſt needful for us; but only, that we are not to neglect Human Learning under the groundleſs Notion that God will teach us ſupernaturally.

If by diligent Study, we endeavour to know and underſtand God's Holy Word, we need not doubt, but that by his Bleſſing, we ſhall attain to as much inſight into the Scriptures as will make us thoroughly furniſhed with every Qualification neceſſary for the Work of the Miniſtry. In the Infancy of the Church, there was a Neceſſity for extraordinary Gifts, in order to the firm Eſtabliſhment of Chriſtianity. But when that was done, the Almighty was pleaſed to withdraw theſe extraordinary Gifts, and leave Men to the ordinary Means of Study and Diſcipline, in order to qualify themſelves for the ſacred Function. And I am perſuaded, that were it not for our Universities, and other Schools of Learning, the Nation would soon be overrun with Ignorance and Barbarity; and, in a short Time, we should be as bad as we were in the Days of Popery.

By thus depreciating Human Learning it is, that these Men endeavour to undermine the Christian Priesthood. They bring it into disrepute by vilifying the Parochial Clergy, and creating Prejudices in the Minds of their respective Parishioners. And tho' they may imagine their scandalous Abuse of a lawful Priesthood to be a Thing of no great Moment; yet when any serious Person considers, that the Success of a Clergyman's Ministry depends, in a great Measure, upon the good Opinion his Parishioners have of him, they will easily perceive the Wickedness of such Practices. And as the Gospel no where Countenances such a Behaviour; so it is evident that they handle the Word of God deceitfully in this Respect; because they Preach it as the Word of God, when in Reality it is not so.

From traducing the lawful Ministry, they naturally proceed to magnify themselves.

After recounting to you what horrid Sinners they have been, they tell you how miraculously they were converted. At such a Time, and at such a particular Place, they felt the Spirit rush in upon them, with such irresistible irreſiſtible Force, that they were immediately tranſlated from the Kingdom of Satan into that of Chriſt. This they make the Mark of the New-Birth; and will allow none to be regenerated, but ſuch only as have, one Time or other, felt this extraordinary Operation.

But this is directly contrary to the Scriptures, which never direct any Man to expect ſuch irreſiſtible Grace. On the Contrary, they declare, that the Grace which God gives Mankind, in order to their Converſion, may be reſiſted; and, through a Man's own Perverſeneſs, may be made of none Effect.

And this is evident from thoſe Places in Scripture, in which God ſays, What was there more to do for my Vineyard, which I have not done in it? Wherefore then, when I looked that it ſhould have brought forth Grapes, brought it forth wild Grapes? Now does not this make it evident, that the Grace which God had given theſe ſtiff-necked People was ſufficient for their Converſion? And yet, notwithſtanding, you ſee, they rejected this Grace, and made it of none Effect. The ſame may be obſerved of the Obſtinacy of the Jews, when our Bleſſed Saviour wept over Jeruſalem. And alſo when he uttered that paſſionate Exclamation, O! Jeruſalem, Jeruſalem, thou that killeſt the Prophets and ſtoneſt ſtoneſt them which are ſent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy Children together, even as a Hen gathereth her Chickens under her Wings, and ye would not! Matt. xxiii. 37. If they would not be gathered to him, is it not evident then, that they reſiſted the Grace of God? I imagine none of the Advocates for irreſiſtible Grace will be ſo hardy as to Charge our Bleſſed Saviour with Inſincerity, when he uttered ſuch a paſſionate Exclamation.

But further, if the Grace given to Men be irreſiſtible, why are they ſo often reproached with turning their Backs; ſtopping their Ears; hardening their Hearts; quenching, grieving, and doing deſpite to the Holy Spirit? Ye ſtiff-necked and uncircumciſed in Heart and Ears, ſays St. Stephen, ye do always reſiſt the Holy Ghoſt: As your Fathers did, ſo alſo do ye. Theſe are plain Paſſages of Scripture. And ſurely the obſcure Parts of it ought to be interpreted ſo as to make the whole conſiſtent with itſelf. When therefore the Doctrine of irreſiſtible Grace is preached up as it is, without taking Notice of theſe Texts of Scripture, what is this but to handle the Word of God deceitfully?

From irreſiſtible Grace, follows the Doctrine of final Perſeverance. Nothing, they ſay, ſhall ever be able to ſeperate them from the Love of God in Chriſt Jeſus; for "once

"a Child of God, and always a Child of "God, was the Expreſſion of one in this "Pulpit."

That they who continue ſtedfaſt unto Salvation, do this by the Power of God through Faith; and that they who are thus preſerved, are preſerved by the Grace of God in Chriſt Jeſus, as being alone able to keep them, has never, that I know of, been denied; but that God hath promiſed to keep any Man from wilfully making Shipwreck of his Faith; or that the juſt Man, who lives by Faith, can never draw back to Perdition, is what we abſolutely deny; becauſe this is not a Doctrine of the Scriptures. Chriſt, indeed hath ſaid, that he gives unto his Sheep eternal Life, and they ſhall never periſh, neither ſhall any pluck them out of his hand. For his Father which gave them to him, is greater than all: and none is able to pluck them out of his Father's hand. John x. 28. 29. But if they willfully forſake him, God hath not promiſed to keep ſuch againſt their Wills. For that a Man may willfully forſake him, and through his own Fault, fall from Grace and die in his Sins, is the expreſs Doctrine of Scripture.

When the Righteous turneth away from his Righteouſneſs and committeth Iniquity, and doth according to all the Abominations which the wicked Man doth, ſhall he Live? All his Righteouſneſs that he hath done ſhall not be mentioned; in the Treſpaſs that he hath treſpaſſed, and in the Sin that he hath ſinned, in them ſhall he die. Ezek. xviii. and 24th. And again in the New Teſtament, St. Paul ſays, It is impoſſible for them who were once enlightened and have taſted the heavenly Gift, and were made Partakers of the Holy Ghoſt, and have taſted the good Word of God, and the Powers of the World to come, and yet fall away, to renew them again to Repentance. Heb. vi. 4, 5, and 6th. And he ſays of himſelf, I keep under my Body, and bring it into Subjection; leſt when I have preached to others, I myſelf, ſhould be caſt away. 1 Cor. ix. and 27th. And ſurely, if ſo great an Apoſtle as St. Paul, who certainly had as much of the Spirit as any Methodiſt can boaſt of, declares it poſſible for him to be caſt away, is it not evident that there is none of us, but what may be caſt away? What words then, can more evidently make it appear, that the Doctrine of final Perſeverance, is a Doctrine not to be found in the Scriptures? And yet theſe are only a few Texts out of a vaſt Number, that may be produced to the ſame Purpoſe. Therefore thoſe who preach this Doctrine, and paſs over theſe and the like Texts of Scripture, in ſo doing, handle the Word of God deceitfully.

Again: They preſume to dive into the ſecret Counſels of God; and with the greateſt Poſitive-

Poſitiveneſs and Preſumption declare, that God hath made an abſolute unconditional Decree, that but a certain Number out of Mankind (all beheld in an equal Degree of Demerit) ſhall be ſaved: And the reſt ſhall be damn'd, without any Conſideration of what they ſhall, or can do. And that accordingly he gives ſo much Grace to ſome, that they cannot miſs of Heaven, and ſo little to others, that they cannot poſſibly attain it. A Doctrine! that throws the foulest Imputation of Injuſtice and Partiality upon the ſupreme Being that can poſſibly be imagin'd; ſupported only by broken Fragments of Scripture, without the leaſt regard to their Contexts, and many other plain Paſſages in the Bible!

When all the Places of Scripture, which mention any Thing of an Election, are taken in one View, and carefully compared with their Contexts, as they ought to be; it evidently appears, that the Election there mentioned, is not meant of particular Perſons elected to eternal Life; but of whole Churches and Nations, to be God's peculiar People; as the Jews were of old, and Chriſtians are now. And this I might eaſily make appear from the Places where any Thing of an Election is mentioned, did not the Limits of a Diſcourſe of this Nature, ſtraighten me in point of Time. But this is ſo clearly done by the learned Dr. Whitby, that I may venture to ſay, that the warmeſt Advocates for Predeſtination, will never be able to anſwer him on this Point.

I ſhall, however, juſt take Notice of one or two of the moſt material Paſſages which are thought to favour this Doctrine. The firſt is, in the 28, and two following Verſes of the 8th Chapter of St. Paul's Epiſtle to the Romans; and is as follows: And we know that all Things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his Purpoſe. For whom he did foreknow, he alſo did predeſtinate to be conformed to the Image of his Son, that he might be the firſt born among many Brethren. Moreover, whom he did predeſtinate, them he alſo called: And whom he called, them he alſo juſtified; And whom he juſtified, them he alſo glorified. An Eye tinged with the rigid Predeſtinarian Tenets, can read the whole Scheme of Election and Reprobation, in every Word of this Paragraph; and dream of ſecret Purpoſes, hidden Wills, and inward efficacious Calls; and what not? But an unprejudiced Perſon, who carefully examines the whole Chapter; and conſiders the Connection and Driſt of the Paſſages in Queſtion, will eaſily find that they are fairly capable of a more rational Interpretation. The Apoſtle from the 11th Verſe, and onwards, is evidently ſpeaking of the Reſurrection of the Body; and informs us who are thoſe that ſhall attain eternal Life, and who not. He encourages the Chriſtians, to whom he was then writing, patiently to endure their preſent Sufferings, from the Conſideration, that all Things work together for good to them that love God; and that their light Afflictions were not worthy to be compared to the Glory which ſhould be revealed in them at the Reſurrection of the Dead. He ſhews that this preſent State of Suffering is the Way to this Glory; that they ſhould be delivered in God's good Time, and comforted above all their Afflictions. He takes Notice, that they hop'd for this Deliverance, and pray'd for it: But in this Caſe, as well as in all others, the Spirit (ſays he) helpeth our Infirmities; for we know not what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit maketh Interceſſion for the Saints, according to the Will of God, who knows better than we ourſelves, what is good for us; and according to our good Behaviour under them, ſo ſhall we be glorious and happy hereafter. For we know that all Things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his Purpoſe: As the firſt Chriſtians were to a more than ordinary State of Afflictions and Sufferings for the Sake of the Goſpel, according to God's Purpoſe of

of placing thoſe in a Poſt of Danger, who, he foreknew, would be able to ſtand it. And whom he did thus foreknow he alſo did predeſtinate to be conformed to the Image or likeneſs of his Son in his Sufferings, Death, and Reſurrection; that he, (our Bleſſed Saviour) might be the firſt born among many Brethren. Moreover, whom he did thus predeſtinate (to ſuffer for the Goſpel at that Time) them he alſo called to it; and whom he called, he alſo, upon their good Behaviour, juſtified; i. e. acquitted, received into Favour; and whom he thus juſtified and approved, them he alſo glorified; i. e. glorified them before Men, as God did his Son, by approving their Works by Signs and Wonders, and Miracles; and will alſo glorify them in Heaven at the laſt Day. From all which, you ſee, there is Nothing that can prove, that there is an abſolute Determination of any Man to Happineſs or Miſery, without having the Power to obtain the one, or avoid the other.

The next Paſſage is to be found in the 9th of the Romans, 12th and 13th Verſes; and is as follows: It was ſaid unto her, the Elder ſhall ſerve the Younger. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Eſau have I hated. Theſe two Words, loved and hated, it is ſaid relate to the future States of Heaven and Hell. But that they do not will appear from from hence, that by Jacob and Eſau, is not meant their particular Perſons, but the Nations deſcended from them. For Eſau never ſerved Jacob, in his own Perſon, that we read of. But it is true of his Poſterity; for Eſau's-Poſterity, (which was the Edomites, ſprung from him) did ſerve the Poſterity of Jacob, (which was the Jews,) until at the Time foretold he ſhook his Yoke from him. And this is evident from the 23d Verſe of the 25th Chapter of Geneſis, from whence St. Paul quotes the Paſſage in Queſtion, and where Rebecca having enquired the Reaſon of the Children ſtruggling within her; ſhe was anſwer'd, Two Nations are in thy Womb, and two Manner of People ſhall be ſeperated from thy Bowels, and the one People ſhall be ſtronger than the other, and the Elder ſhall ſerve the Younger.

Since then, it is certain, that by Jacob and Eſau, is to be underſtood the Nations ſprung from them; ſo it is equally certain, that the Words, loved and hated, cannot ſignify that the whole Nation of the Jews were eternally ſaved, nor that the whole Nation of the Edomites were eternally damn'd. The true meaning, then, muſt be, that one Nation was appointed to bear Rule over the other in this Life, according to God's Purpoſe of electing the Jews to execute his Deſigns, and not the Edomites; not of Works Works (for one People was not better than another) but of God, who was pleaſed for his own ſecret Reaſons to call one his People and not the other. So that this Paſſage, it is clear, has nothing to do with the eternal future State of Men in the World to come.

There is one Paſſage more, in the 21ſt and two following Verſes of this 9th Chapter of the Romans, which is alſo brought to ſupport this Doctrine. The Words are theſe: Hath not the Potter power over the Clay, of the ſame Lump, to make one Veſſel unto Honor, and another unto Diſhonor? What if God, willing to ſhew his Wrath, and to make his Power known, endured with much long-ſuffering the Veſſels of Wrath fitted to Deſtruction: And that he might make known the Riches of his Glory on the Veſſels of Mercy, which he had afore prepared unto Glory? By Veſſels here, is not meant ſingle Perſons, as ſome imagine; but whole Kingdoms and Nations. And by Honor and Diſhonor, is not meant, eternal Happineſs or Miſery, but the outward Privileges which one Nation poſſeſſes above another in this World. That this is the true Meaning, you will ſee by only turning over to the 18th Chapter of Jeremiah, whence this Alluſion of the Potter is taken.—There you will find, that Jeremiah was ſent down to a Potter's Houſe, whom whom he ſaw Work a Work upon the Wheels. And the Veſſel that he made of Clay was marred in his Hand; ſo he made it again another Veſſel, as ſeemed good to him. Then the Word of the Lord came to the Prophet ſaying, O! Houſe of Iſrael, cannot I do with you as this Potter? ſaith the Lord. Behold, as the Clay is in the Potter's Hand, ſo are ye in mine Hand, O! Houſe of Iſrael. That is, as the Potter can with the Lump of Clay, make Veſſels for Uſes more or leſs honourable, ſo can the Almighty out of Mankind, make Nations with more or leſs Privileges; and as, when the Veſſel deſign'd for Honour is marred in the working, the Potter can make it into another Veſſel; ſo, when a Nation favoured with extraordinary Privileges, has rendered itſelf unworthy ſuch Honour, God can diſpoſe of it to leſs Advantage. And this Explication is confirm'd by the Verſes immediately following; where God ſays, At what inſtant I ſhall ſpeak concerning a Kingdom to pluck up and pull down, and to deſtroy it: if that Nation againſt whom I have pronounced, turn from their Evil, I will repent of the Evil that I thought to do unto them. And at what inſtant I ſhall ſpeak concerning a Nation to build, and to plant it; if it do Evil in my Sight, that it obey not my Voice, then I will repent of the good wherewith I ſaid I would Benefit them.

And now, ſince it evidently appears, that by Veſſels is meant whole Nations; and by Honour and Diſhonour, outward Privileges and Advantages; ſo it is equally evident, that the Jews, who enjoy'd the greateſt temporal Bleſſings, had long ſinn'd themſelves out of God's favour, who endured them with much long-ſuffering, 'till they became Veſſels of Wrath fitted to Deſtruction; at which Time, that he might make known his Power, he poured out his juſt Indignation upon them. And then it was that he made known the Riches of his Glory on the Veſſels of his Mercy, even the Gentiles, whom he call'd to be his Church and People, as he had before appointed. Thus have I taken Notice of the moſt material Paſſages, which are thought to contain this Doctrine of an abſolute Predeſtination; and have ſhewn, that they are capable of an Interpretation more agreeable to Reaſon, more conſiſtent with other plain Paſſages of Scripture, and more conſonant to the divine Attributes of Goodneſs, Mercy, and Juſtice.

But let it not be thought that I am here contradicting the 17*th Article* of our Church. That Article mentions nothing of an abſolute Determination of Men to Happineſs or Miſery, without any Regard to their Actions. And therefore, no Man is obliged to put a Senſe upon the Article contrary to the Scriptures.

Scriptures. And as thoſe who preach this Doctrine, do not examine all the Texts and Contexts of Scripture concerning it, they in this Reſpect, handle the Word of God deceitfully.

Again: To abridge the Extent of Chriſt's Redemption, is unſcriptural.

The Scriptures aſſert, that Chriſt died equally for all Men; that as by the Offence of one Man Judgment came upon all Men to Condemnation; ſo by the Righteouſneſs of one Man, the free Gift came upon all Men to Juſtification. But it may be objected, that in many Places it is not ſaid Chriſt gave his Life a Ranſom for all, but for many. So it is alſo ſaid, that by the Diſobedience of Adam, many were made Sinners; whereas it appears in other Places of Scripture, that all were made Sinners. And ſo, in the ſame Epiſtle where it is ſaid Chriſt bore the Sins of many, it is alſo expreſly ſaid, he taſted Death for every Man: ſo that there is no Inconſiſtency betwixt dying for many, and dying for all. Therefore taking Notice of ſome Texts to this Purpoſe, and not of all, is another Inſtance of handling the Word of God deceitfully.

Once more, their preaching Faith without Works, is without any Warrant from Scripture.

If St. Paul tells us, in one Place, we are juſtified by Faith without the Deeds of the Law, he tells us alſo, in another, that it is ſuch a Faith as works by Love. And St. James, in theſe very Words, tells us, that by Works a Man is juſtified, and not by Faith only. But if a Clergyman, who is not a profeſſed Methodiſt, ſpeaks any Thing of good Works (tho' he has the Authority of Scripture for ſo doing) they immediately inſinuate that he perſuades his Hearers to Truſt in their good Works for their Juſtification; which ſhews their Diſingenuity, and alſo that they handle the Word of God deceitfully.

The laſt particular which I ſhall mention at preſent, is that of their denying the Freedom of Man's Will; and aſſerting that God has not given him Power to refuſe the Evil and chuſe the Good. Whereas the Scriptures from the beginning to the end, do plainly declare a Liberty of Choice in every one. Chuſe you this Day, ſays Joſhua to the Children of Iſrael, whom you will ſerve, whether the Gods which your Fathers ſerved, that were on the other Side of the Flood, or the Gods of the Amorites, in whoſe Land ye dwell: But as for me, and my Houſe, we will ſerve the Lord. Joſh. xxiv. 15. Now if this does not imply a Freedom of choice, to what Purpoſe were they offered their choice?

Who-

Whoſoever will, ſays our Saviour, let him take the Water of Life freely. Rev. xxii. 27. If we may do this freely, ſurely this implies that we are under no Reſtraint, but have a Liberty of choice. Theſe are only a few Texts, out of many more that might be produced to this Purpoſe. When the Methodiſts paſs over ſuch Texts as theſe, then it is plain they handle the Word of God deceitfully.

To be ſure, it is the Doctrine of Scripture, and an Article of our Church, that without the Holy Spirit preventing us, we can do nothing; but this does not imply, but that God gives a ſufficient Portion of his Spirit to every Man, to enable him to chuſe that which is good. And if God gives it to every Man, then every Man muſt have it in his Power to turn to God if he will. But whoſoever does not put the ſame Senſe upon the Articles that they do, (thoſe) however contrary it may be to the Intention of the Compilers, why to be ſure, if they are Clergymen, they are perjured, as one had the Aſſurance to ſay, in this Pulpit; and, if Laity, they are not yet regenerated, and of Courſe not in a State of Salvation. Very charitable truly! But I ſhall now proceed to ſhew in the Second Place, the pernicious Conſequences of thus handling the Word of God deceitfully.

In the Firſt Place, it hurts the Credit of Religion among thoſe who have little or no Regard for it; by expoſing it to the Scorn and and Contempt of Infidels and Deiſts. For any one who has the Uſe of his Reaſon and a tolerable Share of Underſtanding, muſt perceive, that this deceitful dealing with the Word of God, is to make the Chriſtian Religion appear ridiculous; and is, in Effect, to Burleſque it.

So that when Libertines find Religion repreſented in ſuch a deſpicable Character, they imagine they have ſufficient Reaſon to juſtify their treating it with Contempt; and therefore imprudently fix that Reproach upon Religion, which is due only to the Miſrepreſentation of it. And however wrong it may be in them to do ſo, yet it cannot be denied but that they have had too much Occaſion for it; not only from the Church of Rome, but alſo from Enthuſiaſts of every Denomination.

The dark and confuſed Diſcourſes of an Enthuſiaſt, juſtifies the laughing at them; for no one can be ſerious in a Farce, or avoid ridiculing that which is in itſelf ridiculous.

Thus the Religion of Chriſt is blaſphemed by the Extravagance of thoſe, whoſe Religion, as an excellent Writer expreſſes it, "is but the Spectre of Religion murdered "by Ignorance and Enthuſiaſm."

And as this dark and blind Repreſentation of Religion ſubverts its Credit among thoſe

thoſe who have little or no Regard for it, ſo alſo it unhinges the common Principles of it among the unwary and injudicious; who are from hence led to reject the plain and practical Precepts of Chriſtianity, to follow after vain Deluſions; which feed them up with the fantaſtical Conceit of obtaining ſome extraordinary indwelling of the Spirit. Then they begin to run about from Place to Place, ſeeking after they cannot tell what; a mere Ignis Fatuus; always unſettled; ever hearing, and never being able to come to the Knowledge of the Truth.

And as ſuch People are ever fond of hearing ſomething myſterious, no Diſcourſes will pleaſe them but what are myſterious; and therefore it is certain, that they can make but little Progreſs in Chriſtian Knowledge. For ſuch Kind of Diſcourſes, any Man of tolerable Parts, and good Aſſurance, can eaſily accompliſh. There is no more neceſſary than to make Scripture Phraſes familiar, by very much reading the Bible, and very little Underſtanding it; and then to expreſs as violent Affections, and as great Vehemence of Action in the Pronunciation as is poſſible, and the Buſineſs is done. And as theſe Diſcourſes are conſtantly repeated, it is evident to any one, that thoſe who are fond of hearing them will, notwithſtanding, be very far from religious Improvement.

Indeed

Indeed, many imagine they improve; ſo far forſooth, as to ſet up Preachers themſelves. For ſeeing thoſe who are unlearned, hold forth an Hour together, tho' they cannot make head or tail of what they ſay, yet they think they muſt be taught of God, becauſe they were never taught at all. And when they have learned thus to hold forth themſelves, they immediately intrude into the Prieſt's Office, and imagine that they are likewiſe taught of God.

And as their Diſcourſes are made up of Cant and Folly; ſo the Defence of them is reviling and abuſe. For a Truth it is, that none deſpiſe thoſe who differ from them more than Enthuſiaſts do; which is a Demonſtration that they are very little influenced by the plain and practical Precepts of Chriſtianity. And tho' perhaps they may not be guilty of the groſſer Acts of Immorality; yet ſpiritual Pride, which is the diſtinguiſhing Mark of an Enthuſiaſt, is not leſs abominable.

Theſe are the pernicious Conſequences of handling the Word of God deceitfully; that it ſubverts the Credit of Religion, and hinders the Efficacy of it upon ſuch as might otherwiſe Experience its ſalutary Effects upon their Lives and Actions. It produces ſpiritual Pride; makes Men conceited; and prompts them to look upon every one elſe with an

uncharitable Eye; and even to go ſo far as to pronounce Sentence of Condemnation upon their Neighbours, as if they knew for certain, what would be their final State hereafter.

There is nothing that I have ſaid, that is in the leaſt exaggerated; but is well known to be fact; and any one may be convinced of it, with a ſmall Degree of Obſervation. I ſhall now, in the Third and laſt Place, cloſe all with a Word of Exhortation. Seeing then, that theſe Things are ſo: And that there ever was, and ever will be, religious Deluſions in this World, it highly becomes every one, who has any regard to his own Peace and Happineſs, both here and hereafter, to be upon his guard; and, by a conſtant Peruſal of the Holy Scriptures, to eſtabliſh his Faith upon a firm Foundation: And then he will not be driven away by every Wind of Doctrine, and cunning Craftineſs of Men, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

And take it for an undoubted Truth, that thoſe who rack their Brains by prying into ſuch abſtruſe Points of Religion as the nice Hypotheſis of Election and Reprobation; God's eternal Decrees, and Foreknowledge, and the like; are only doting about Queſtions and ſtriſes of Words, whereof cometh Envy, Strife, Railings, evil Surmiſings, and perverſe

Diſputings, inſtead of filling their Minds with the genuine Fruits of Chriſtianity.

If we ſtudy the honeſt plain Truths of the Goſpel, and by the Practice of them, endeavour to make our calling and Election ſure, this will be Employment enough for us, without endeavouring to explain Myſteries, the Nature of which, God hath thought fit to conceal from us.

Let it be our Buſineſs then, my Brethren, to make ſure of a bleſſed Inheritance among the Saints in Light. We all know, that a good Life, thro' the Merits and Satisfaction of Jeſus Chriſt, is the only means to obtain everlaſting Happineſs. Seeing ye know theſe Things before, beware then, leſt ye being led away by the Error of the wicked, fall from your own Stedfaſtneſs. But grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt; and may the God of all Grace give you a right Underſtanding in all Things, thro' Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. To whom with the Father, and the Holy Ghoſt, be Glory, Dominion, and Power, now and for ever, Amen.

FINIS.
